
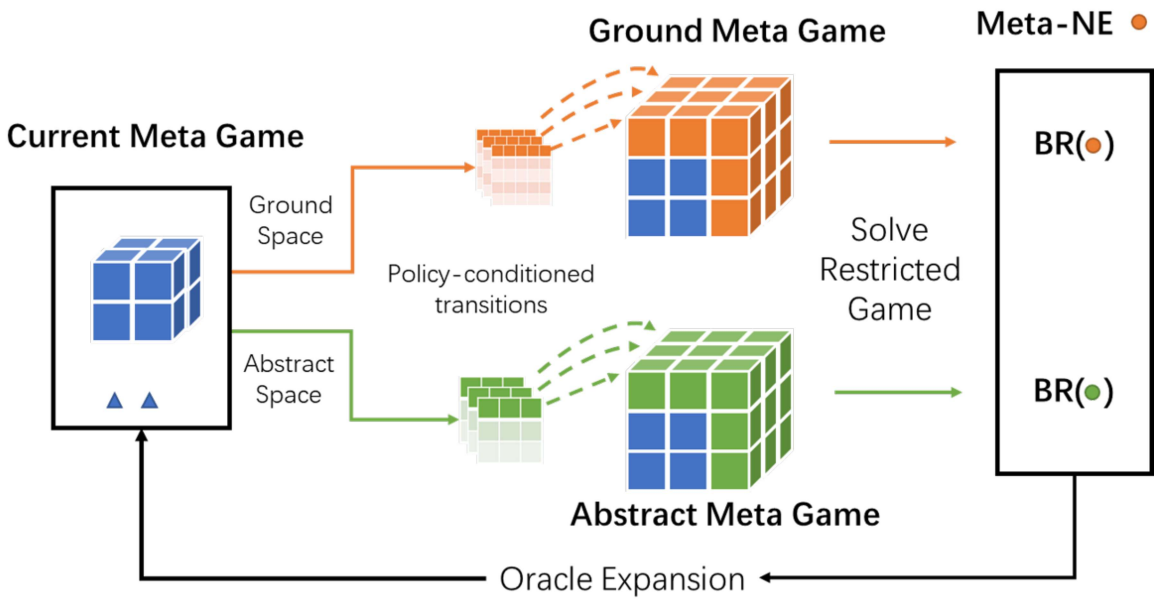

Figure 1. The diagram illustrates how a meta-game (blue cube) is transformed into abstract meta-games via policy-conditioned transitions (dashed arrows). The resulting ground and abstract operator games (orange and green cubes) are solved to obtain Meta-Nash Equilibria (Meta-NE) and mixtures over basis policies, providing a structured and sample-efficient approach for strategy optimization in zero-sum games.